(b) when there are superior and inferior land-owners in the same estate, the Financial Commissioner may by rule, or by special order in each case, determine whether the superior or inferior land-owners shall be liable for the land-revenue, or whether both shall be so liable, and, if so, in what proportions.

(2) A notification under proviso (a) to sub-section (1) may have reference to any single estate or to any class of estate or estates generally in any local area.

69. Further security for payment of land revenue.—The land revenue for time being assessed on an estate or payable in respect of a holding shall be the first charge upon the rents, profits and produce thereof.

(2) Without the previous consent of the Collector, the rents, profits or produce of an estate or holding shall not be liable to be taken in execution of a decree or order of any Court until the land revenue chargeable against the rents, profits or produce, and any arrear of land revenue due in respect of the estate or holding, have been paid.

70. Orders to regulate payment of land revenue.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the Financial Commissioner may fix the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, places and manner, by, at and in which land revenue is to be paid.

(2) Until the Financial Commissioner otherwise directs, land revenue shall be payable by the instalments at the times and place and in the manner, by, at and in which it is payable at the commencement of this Act.

71. Rules to regulate collection, remission and suspension of land revenue.—(1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue and may by those rules determine the circumstances and terms in and on which land revenue may be collected by the assignee.

(2) Where land-revenue due to an assignee is collected by a Revenue Officer, there shall be deducted from the sum collected such a percentage on account of the cost of collection as the Financial Commissioner may by rule in this behalf prescribe.

(3) A suit for an arrear of assigned land-revenue shall not be entertained unless there is annexed to the plaint at the time of the presentation thereof a document under the hand of the Collector specially authorizing the institution of the suit.

76. Distress and sale of movable property and crops.—(1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the movable property and uncut or ungathered crops of the defaulter may be distrained and sold by order of a Revenue Officer.

(2) The distress and sale shall be conducted as nearly as may be, in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of movable property under the decree of a Revenue Court constituted under the Himachal Pradesh Abolition of Big Landed Estates and Land Reforms Act, 1953:

Provided that, in addition to the particulars exempted by that law from liability to sale, so much of the produce of the land of the defaulter as the Collector thinks necessary for seedgrain and for the subsistence, until the harvest next following, of the defaulter and his family, and of any cattle exempted by that law, shall be exempted from sale under this section.

77. Transfer of holding.—(1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued on a holding, the Collector may transfer the holding to any person being a land-owner of the estate in which this holding is situate and not being a defaulter in respect of his own holding, on condition of his paying the arrear before being put in possession of the holding, and on such further conditions as the Collector may see fit to prescribe.

(2) The transfer may, as the Collector thinks fit, be either till the end of the agricultural year in which the defaulter pays to the transferee the amount of the arrear which the transferee paid before being put in possession of the holding, or for a term not exceeding fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the transfer.

(3) The Collector shall report to the Financial Commissioner any transfer made by him under this section, and the Financial Commissioner may set aside the transfer or alter the conditions thereof or pass such other order as he thinks fit.

(4) A transfer under this section shall not affect the joint and several liability of the land owners of the estate in which it is enforced.

(5) In respect of all rights and liabilities arising under this Act, the person to whom the holding is transferred shall, subject to the conditions of the transfer, stand in the same position as that in which the defaulter would have stood if the holding had not been transferred.

(6) When the transfer was for a term, the holding shall, on the expiration of the term, be restored by the Collector to the defaulter free of any claim on the part of the State Government or the transferee for any arrear of land-revenue or rates and cesses due in respect thereof.

78. Attachment of estate or holding.—(1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued the Collector may cause the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be attached and taken under his own management or that of a Gram Panchayat.

(2) The Collector or Gram Panchayat shall be bound by all the engagements which existed between the defaulter and his tenants, if any, and shall be entitled to manage the land and to receive all rents and profits accruing therefrom to the exclusion of the defaulter until the arrear has been satisfied, or until the Collector restores the land to the defaulter.

(3) All surplus profits of the land attached beyond the cost of attachment and management and the amount necessary to meet the current demand for land-revenue and rates and cesses shall be applied in discharge of the arrear.

(4) Land shall not be attached for the same arrear for a longer term than five years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the attachment, but, if the arrear is sooner discharged, the land shall be released and the surplus receipts, if any, made over to the land-owner.

79. Annulment of assessment of estate or holding.—(1) When an arrear of land-revenue has been due for a longer period than one month, and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Financial Commissioner may, in addition to or instead of all or any of those processes, order the existing assessment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be annulled.

(2) The provision of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of an arrear of land revenue which has accrued on land:—

(a) while under attachment under the last foregoing section ;
or,

(b) while under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(3) When the assessment of any land has been annulled, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, either manage the land himself or through an agent, or let it in farm to any person willing to accept the farm, for such term and on such conditions as may be sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner :

Provided that the term for which land may be so managed or farmed shall not be longer than fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the annulment.

(4) At some time before the expiration of that term the Collector shall determine the assessment to be paid in respect of the estate or holding for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, and, when that assessment has been sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner, shall announce it to the land-owner.

(5) The land-owner may give notice to the Collector of refusal to be liable for the assessment within thirty days from the date on which the assessment was announced to him.

(6) If notice is so given, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, take the estate or holding under direct management or farm it for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, or for any period within that term which the Financial Commissioner may fix.

(7) When the assessment of a holding is annulled, the joint responsibility of the other land-owners of the estate for the land revenue of that holding becoming due after the annulment shall be in abeyance until a new assessment takes effect.

(8) The Financial Commissioner may direct that any contract made by the defaulter, or by any person through whom the defaulter claims, with respect to any land comprised in an estate or holding of which the assessment has been annulled, shall not be binding on the Collector or his agent or farmer during the period for which the estate or holding remains under the management of the Collector or his agent or is let in farm.

80. Proclamation of attachment or annulment of assessment and consequence of the proclamation.—(1) When any land is attached under section 78, or when the assessment of any land has been annulled under the last foregoing section, the Collector shall make proclamation thereof.

(2) No payment made by any person to the defaulter before the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset in anticipation of the usual time for the payment shall, without the special sanction of the Collector, be credited to that person or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

(3) No payment made after the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset of the estate or holding to any person other than the Collector or his agent or farmer shall be credited to the person making the payment or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

81. Sale of estate or holding.—When an arrear of land-revenue has accrued and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, may, in addition to, or instead of, all or any of those processes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, sell the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due :

Provided that land shall not be sold for the recovery of :—

- (a) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under the charge of the Court of Wards, or was so circumstanced that the Court of Wards might have exercised jurisdiction over it under the law in force ;
- (b) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under attachment under section 78 of this Act ; or
- (c) any arrear which has accrued while the land was held under direct management by the Collector or in farm by any other person, under section 79, after either an annulment of assessment or a refusal to be liable therefor.

82. Effects of sale on encumbrances.—(1) Land sold under the last foregoing section shall be sold free of all encumbrances, and all grants and contracts previously made, by any person other than the purchaser in respect of the land shall become void as against the purchaser at the sale.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect:—

- (a) a tenant's right of occupancy, unless the right was created by the defaulter himself; or
- (b) any lease at a fair rent, temporary or perpetual, for the erection of a dwelling house or manufactory, or for a mine, garden, tank, canal, place of worship, or burial ground, so long as the land continues to be used for the purposes specified in the lease; or
- (c) any encumbrance, grant, contract or right of occupancy specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner and proclaimed as hereinafter provided.

83. Proceedings against other immovable property of defaulter.—(1) If the arrear cannot be recovered by any of the processes hereinbefore provided, and if the Financial Commissioner considers the enforcement of any of those processes to be inexpedient, the Collector may, where the defaulter owns any other estate or holding or any other immovable property, proceed under the provisions of this Act against that property as if it were the land in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that no interests save those of the defaulter alone shall be so proceeded against, and no encumbrances created, grants made and contracts entered into by him, in good faith shall be rendered invalid by reason only of his interests being proceeded against.

(2) When the Collector determines to proceed under this section against property other than the land in respect of which the arrear is due, he shall issue a proclamation prohibiting the transfer or charging of the property.

(3) The Collector may at any time by order in writing withdraw the proclamation, and it shall be deemed to be withdrawn when either the arrear has been paid or the interests of the defaulter in the property have been sold for the recovery of the arrear.

(4) Any private alienation of the property or of any interest of the defaulter therein, whether by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, made after the issue of the proclamation and before the withdrawal thereof shall be void.

(5) In a proceeding against property under this section the Collector shall follow, as nearly as the nature of the property will admit, the procedure prescribed for the enforcement of process against land on which an arrear of land-revenue is due.

84. Remedies open to person denying his liability for an arrear.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section 73 when proceedings are taken under this Act for the recovery of an arrear the person against whom the proceedings are taken may, if he denies his liability for the arrear or any part thereof and pays the same under protest made in writing at the time of a payment and signed by him or his agent, institute a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of the amount so paid.

(2) A suit under sub-section (1) must be instituted in a court having jurisdiction in the place where the office of the Collector of the district in which the arrear or some part thereof accrued is situate.

(3) The proclamation shall be further published in manner prescribed in section 23 and in such other manner as the Collector thinks expedient.

88. Time and conduct of sale.—(1) The sale shall not take place on Sunday or other holiday, or till after the expiration of at least thirty days from the date on which the copy of the proclamation was posted in the office of the Collector.

(2) The sale shall be by public auction, and shall be conducted either by the Collector in person or by a Revenue Officer specially appointed by him in this behalf.

89. Power to postpone sale.—The Collector may from time to time postpone the sale.

90. Stay of sale.—If at any time before the bidding at the auction is completed the defaulter pays the arrear in respect of which the property has been proclaimed for the sale, together with the costs incurred for the recovery thereof, to the officer conducting the sale, and proves to the satisfaction of that officer that he has already paid the same either at the place and in the manner prescribed under section 70 or into the Government treasury, the sale shall be stayed.

91. Payment of deposit by highest bidder.—When the highest bid at the auction has been ascertained, the person who made that bid shall, on the requisition of the officer conducting the sale, pay to that officer a deposit of twenty five per centum on the amount of his bid, and shall, on payment thereof, be declared to be the purchaser subject to the provisions of this Chapter with respect to the exercise of any right of pre-emption.

92. Consequences of failure to pay deposit.—If the person who made the highest bid fails to pay the deposit as required by the last foregoing section, the property shall forthwith be put up again and sold, all expenses attending the first sale, and the deficiency of price, if any, which may happen on the resale, may be recovered from him by the Collector as if the same were an arrear of land-revenue.

93. Time for payment in full.—The full amount of the purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser before the close of the fifteenth day from that on which the purchaser was declared.

94. Procedure in default of payment.—In default of payment of the full amount of the purchase money within the period mentioned in the last foregoing section, the deposit referred to in section 91 shall, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the State Government and may, if the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner, so directs, be applied in reduction of the arrear, and the property shall be resold, and the defaulting purchaser shall have no claim in the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

95. Report of sale to Commissioner.—Every sale of immovable property under this Chapter shall be reported by the Collector to the Commissioner.

96. Application to set aside sale.—(1) At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Commissioner to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake in publishing or conducting it.

(2) But a sale shall not be set aside on that ground unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of the irregularity or mistake.

97. Order confirming or setting aside sale.—(1) After the expiration of thirty days from the date of the sale, if such application as is mentioned in the last foregoing section has not been made, or if such application has been made and rejected, the Commissioner shall make an order confirming the sale, and, if such application has been made and allowed, the Commissioner shall make an order setting aside the sale.

(2) An order made under this section shall be final.

98. Refund of purchase money on setting aside of sale.—Whenever the sale of any property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase money within three months of the date of rejection of the sale after which date the purchaser will be entitled to interest at such rate not exceeding three per cent per annum as the Financial Commissioner thinks fit on the money deposited.

99. Proclamation after postponement or on resale.—A sale made after a postponement under section 89, and a resale consequent on a purchaser's default under section 94 or on the setting aside of a sale under section 97, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

100. On confirmation of sale, possession and certificate to be granted to purchaser.—(1) After a sale has been confirmed in manner aforesaid the Collector shall put the person declared to be the purchaser into possession of the property sold, and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased that property.

(2) The certificate shall state whether or not the property was sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, and, if it was so sold, shall set forth the encumbrances, grants, contracts and rights of occupancy, if any, specified in the proclamation of the sale as specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner under section 82, sub-section (2), clause (c).

(3) The certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of the property but need not be registered as a conveyance.

(4) Any suit brought in any Court against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of a person other than the certified purchaser shall be dismissed with costs.

(5) The certified purchaser of any immovable property shall be entitled to all rents and profits falling due in respect of the property after the date of the confirmation of the sale and be liable for all instalments of land-revenue and rates and cesses falling due in respect thereof after that date.

101. Proceeds of sale.—(1) When a sale of immovable property under this Chapter has been confirmed, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the first place to the payment of any arrears, including costs incurred for the recovery thereof, due to the State from the defaulter at the date of the confirmation of the sale, whether the arrears are of land-revenue or of sum recoverable as arrears of land-revenue, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold, or, if the property sold was owned by more than one person, then to the owners either collectively or according to the amount of their recorded interests, as the Collector thinks fit.

(2) The surplus shall not, except under an order of a Court, be paid to any creditor of a person whose property has been sold.

(3) If the proceeds of the sale fall short of such arrears as are referred to in sub-section (1), the balance remaining due from the defaulter may be recovered from him by further proceedings under this Chapter or by any other means authorized by law.

CHAPTER VII.—Recovery of other demands by Revenue Officers

102. Recovery of certain arrears through Revenue Officer instead of by suit.—When a village officer required by rules under section 29 to collect any land revenue or any arrears of land revenue recoverable as land revenue satisfies the Revenue Officer that revenue or sum has fallen due and has not been paid by him, the Revenue Officer may subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, recover it as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

103. Other sums recoverable as arrears of land revenue.—In addition to any sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force, the following sums may be so recovered, namely:—

- (a) fees, fines, costs and other charges, including the village-officers cess payable under this Act ;
- (b) revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of lands, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 42 or section 43 in cases in which the revenue so due has not been included in the assessment of an estate ;

- (f) sums payable to the State Government by a person who is surety for the payment of any of the foregoing sums or of any other sum recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

104. Recovery of arrears due from co-sharers paid by Nambardar.—(1) Any Nambardar who has paid an arrear of revenue due on account of the share of any co-sharer whom he represents may, within six months from the date of such payment, apply in writing to the Revenue Officer to recover such arrear on his behalf as if it were an arrear of revenue payable to State Government.

(2) The Revenue Officer shall on receipt of such application, satisfy himself that the amount claimed is due to the Nambardar and may then subject to rules made under this Act proceed to recover, as if it were an arrear of land revenue such amount with costs and interests from the said co-sharer or any person in possession of his share.

(3) The Revenue Officer shall not be made a defendant in any suit in respect of an amount for the recovery of which an order has been passed under this section. No appeal shall lie from an order of a Revenue Officer under this section.

105. Application of Chapter VI to sums recoverable under this Chapter.—(1) The provisions of Chapter VI, shall, with respect of any sum mentioned or referred to in this Chapter, apply, so far as they can be made applicable, as if the sum were an arrear of land revenue and the person from whom, either as principal or as surety, it is due were a defaulter in respect of such an arrear.

(2) Unless any such sum is declared by any enactment for the time being in force to be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the land charged therewith, the provisions of section 83 shall apply under sub-section (1) to the recovery thereof.

CHAPTER VIII.—Surveys and Boundaries

106. Power of Financial Commissioner to make rules for demarcation of boundaries and erection of survey marks.—(1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules as to the manner in which the boundaries of all or any estates in any local area are to be demarcated and as to the survey-marks to be erected within those estates.

(2) In defining the limits of any land under sub-section (1) the Revenue Officer may, cause survey-marks to be erected on any boundary already determined by, or by order of any Court, Revenue Officer or Forest Settlement Officer, or restore any survey-marks already set up by, or by order of any Court or any such Officer.

(2) Upon an order being made under sub-section (1), the Collector shall fix a boundary line between such estates or portion of such estates accordingly, and shall demarcate the same, in accordance with the rules (if any) made under section 106 and the provisions of section 107.

(3) Every such boundary line shall be fixed with due regard to the history of the estates and the interests of the persons respectively owning them or possessing rights therein, in such manner as may be just and equitable in the circumstances of each case.

(4) No such boundary line shall be deemed to have been permanently fixed until it has been approved by the Financial Commissioner.

109. Effect of fixing a boundary between riverain estates.—(1) Every boundary line fixed in accordance with the provisions of section 108 shall, notwithstanding any law or custom, or any decree or order of any court of law, to the contrary, be the fixed and constant boundary between the estates affected thereby, and the proprietary and all other rights in every holding, field or other portion of an estate situate on each side of the boundary line so fixed, shall, subject to the following proviso, vest in the land-owners of the estate which lies on that side of the boundary line on which such holding, field or other portion of an estate is situate :

such rights to any land owners of the estate, in the land-owners of which, but for such order such rights would vest under the operation of sub-section (1) of section 109, the rights so transferred shall forthwith cease to be subject to such order.

112. Rights transferred to be liable to all the incidents of tenure of the estate to which the transfer is made.—In every case in which, by the operation of section 109 or section 110 or section 111, proprietary or other rights in land are transferred from the land-owners and other right holders of any one estate to the land-owners of any other estate, such rights shall be subject to all the incidents of tenure and liabilities which under any law or custom for the time being in force, apply to the rights of the land-owners of the estate to which such rights are so transferred.

113. 114. Cost of erection and repair of survey-marks.—Subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, survey-marks shall be erected and kept in repair by or at the cost of the persons interested in the land for the indication of the limits of which they are required:

Provided that the State Government may in any case direct that the cost of erection shall be borne by the Government or be paid out of the proceeds of the village officer's cess.

115. Recovery of cost incurred by the Government.—

(1) If the persons interested in the land fail to erect or repair a survey-mark within thirty days from the date of their being required by a Revenue Officer to do so, the Revenue Officer may cause it to be erected or repaired.

(2) Where the Revenue Officer causes a survey-mark to be erected or repaired, he shall, subject to any rules or direction under the last foregoing section, apportion the cost among the persons interested in the land in such manner as he deems just and certify the same to the Collector.

(3) The Collector may recover the cost as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

116. Power of Revenue-officers to enter on land for purpose of survey and demarcation.—Any Revenue Officer, and any person acting under the orders of a Revenue Officer, may, in the discharge of any duty under this Act, enter upon and survey land and erect survey-marks thereon and demarcate the boundaries thereof, and do all other acts necessary for the proper performance of that duty.

118. Provision of flag-holders and chain-men for those surveys.—(1) For the purposes of the survey of any land in pursuance of rules under section 47, clause (c), the land-owners shall be bound to provide fit persons to act as flag-holders and chain-men.

(2) If the land-owners fail to provide such persons or to provide them in sufficient number, such other persons as a Revenue Officer considers necessary may be employed and the cost of employing them recovered from the land-owners as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

119. Professional surveys.—(1) If it is necessary to make a survey by other agency than that of Revenue Officers or village officers, the State Government may publish a notification stating —

- (a) the local area to be surveyed and the nature of the survey;
- (b) the names or official designations of the officers by whom the survey is to be made; and

120. Penalty for destruction, injury or removal of survey-marks.—(1) If any person wilfully destroys or injures or without lawful authority removes a survey-mark lawfully erected, he may be ordered by a Revenue Officer to pay such fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for each mark so destroyed, injured or removed as may, in the opinion of the Revenue Officer, be necessary to defray the expenses of restoring the same and of rewarding the person, if any, who gave information of the destruction, injury or removal.

(2) The imposition of a fine under this section shall not bar a prosecution under section 434 of the Indian Penal Code.

121. Report of destruction or removal of or injury to survey-marks.—Every village officer of an estate shall be legally bound to furnish a Revenue Officer with information respecting the destruction or removal of, or any injury done to any survey-mark lawfully erected in the estate.

CHAPTER IX.—Partition

122. Effect of partitions of estates and tenancies on joint liability for revenue and rent.—(1) A partition of land, either under this Chapter or otherwise, shall not, without the express consent of the Financial Commissioner, affect the joint liability of the land or of the land-owners thereof for the revenue payable in respect of the land, or operate to create a new estate, and, if any conditions are attached to that consent, those conditions shall be binding on the parties to the partition.

(2) A partition of a tenancy shall not, without the express consent of the land-lord, affect the joint liability of the co-sharers therein for the payment of the rent thereof.

123. Application for partition.—Any joint owner of land, or any joint tenant of a tenancy in which a right of occupancy subsists, may apply to a Revenue Officer for partition of his share in the land or tenancy, as the case may be, if—

- (a) at the date of the application the share is recorded under Chapter IV as belonging to him, or
- (b) his right to the share has been established by a decree which is still subsisting at that date, or
- (c) a written acknowledgment of that right has been executed by all persons interested in the admission or denial thereof.

124. Restrictions and limitations on partition.—Notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing section—

- (1) Places of worship and burial grounds held in common before partition shall continue to be so held after partition unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves and record their agreement and file it with the Revenue Officer;
- (2) Partition of any of the following properties, namely—
 - (a) any embankment, watercourse, well or tank, and any land on which the supply of water to any such work may depend,
 - (b) any grazing ground, and
 - (c) any land which is occupied as the site of a town or village and is assessed to land-revenue, may be refused if, in the opinion of the Revenue Officer, the partition of such property is likely to cause inconvenience to the co-sharers or other persons directly or indirectly interested therein, or to diminish the utility thereof to those persons; and

- (3) The fact that a partition on the application of a joint owner of land would render necessary the severance into two or more parts of the land comprised in the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy may, unless the tenant assents to the severance, be a sufficient reason for the disallowance of the partition in so far as it would affect that tenancy.

125. Notice of application for partition.—The Revenue Officer, on receiving the application under section 123 shall, if it is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, fix a day for the hearing thereof, and—

- (a) cause notice of the application and of the day so fixed to be served on such of the recorded co-sharers as have not joined in the application, and, if the share of which partition is applied for is a share in a tenancy, on the land-lord also; and
- (b) issue a proclamation calling on any person who may have objections to the partition to appear before him either in person or by a duly authorised agent on a day fixed for the hearing of the application and to state them.

126. Addition of parties to application.—On the day fixed for the hearing, or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned the Revenue Officer shall ascertain whether any of the other co-sharers desire the partition of their shares also, and, if any of them so desire, he shall add them as applicants for partition.

127. Absolute dis allowance of partition.—After examining such of the co-sharers and other persons as may be present on that day, the Revenue Officer may, if he is of opinion that there is good and sufficient cause why partition should be absolutely disallowed, refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

128. Procedure on admission of application.—If the Revenue Officer does not refuse the application under the last foregoing section, he shall ascertain the questions, if any, in dispute between any of the persons interested distinguishing between—

- (a) questions as to title in the property of which partition is sought ; and
- (b) questions as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making the partition.

129. Disposal of questions as to title in property to be divided.—(1) When there is a question as to title in any of the property of which partition is sought, the Revenue Officer may decline to grant the application for partition until the question has been determined by a competent Court, or he may himself proceed to determine the question as though he were such a Court.

(2) Where the Revenue Officer himself proceeds to determine the question, the following rule shall apply, namely—

- (a) if the question is one over which a Revenue Court has jurisdiction, the Revenue Officer shall proceed as a Revenue Court under the provision of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 as applicable to Himachal Pradesh.
- (b) If the question is one over which a Civil Court has jurisdiction, the procedure of the Revenue Officer shall be that applicable to the trial of an original suit by a Civil Court, and he shall record a judgment and decree containing the particulars required by the Code of Civil Procedure to be specified therein ;
- (c) an appeal shall lie from the decree of the Revenue Officer under clause (b) as though that decree were a decree of a Subordinate Judge in an original suit ;
- (d) upon such an appeal being made, the District Court or Judicial Commissioner's Court as the case may be, may issue an injunction to the Revenue Officer requiring him to stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal ;

- (e) from the appellate decree of a District Court upon such an appeal a further appeal shall lie to the Judicial Commissioner's Court if such a further appeal is allowed by the law for the time being in force.

130. Disposal of other questions.—(1) When there is a question as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making a partition, the Revenue Officer shall, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, record an order stating his decision on the question and his reasons for the decision.

(2) An appeal may be preferred from an order under sub-section (1) within thirty days from the date thereof, and, when such an appeal is preferred and the institution thereof has been certified to the Revenue Officer by the authority to whom the appeal has been preferred the Revenue Officer shall stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

(3) If an applicant for partition is dis-satisfied with an original or appellate order under this section and applies for permission to withdraw from the proceedings in so far as they relate to the partition of his shares, he shall be permitted to withdraw therefrom on such terms as the Revenue Officer thinks fit.

(4) When an applicant withdraws under the last foregoing sub-section, the Revenue Officer may, where the other applicants, if any, desire the continuance of the proceedings, continue them in so far as they relate to the partition of the shares of those other applicants.

131. Administration of property excluded from partition.—When any such property as is referred to in section 124, clause (2), is excluded from partition, the Revenue Officer may determine the extent and manner to and in which the co-sharers and other persons interested therein may make use thereof, and the proportion in which expenditure incurred thereon and profits derived therefrom, respectively, or to be borne by and divided among those persons or any of them.

132. Distribution of revenue and rent after partition.—(1) The amount of revenue to be paid in respect of each of the holdings into which land has been divided on a partition, and the amount of rent to be paid in respect of each of the portions into which a tenancy has been so divided, shall be determined by the Revenue Officer making the partition.

(2) The determination of the Revenue Officer as to the revenue to be paid in respect of each holding shall, where the estate in which the holding is situate is subject to a fixed assessment, be deemed to be an order under section 60, sub-section (1).

(3) Where new estates have been created at a partition and the land-revenue has been fraudulently or erroneously distributed among them, the State Government may within twelve years from the time of discovery of the fraud or error, order a new distribution of the land-revenue among several estates, on an estimate of the assets of each estate at the time of the partition, to be made conformably to the best evidence and information procurable respecting the same.

133. Instrument of partition.—When a partition is completed, the Revenue Officer shall cause an instrument of partition to be prepared, and the date on which the partition is to take effect to be recorded therein.

134. Delivery of possession of property allotted on partition.—An owner or tenant to whom any land or portion of a tenancy, as the case may be, is allotted in proceedings for partition shall be entitled to possession thereof as against the other parties to the proceedings and their legal representatives, and a Revenue Officer shall, on application made to him for the purpose by any such owner or tenant at any time within three years from the date recorded in the instrument of partition under the last foregoing section, give effect to that instrument so as it concerns the applicant as if it were a decree for immovable property.

135. Affirmation of partition privately affected.—(1) In any case in which a partition has been made without the intervention of a Revenue Officer, any party thereto may apply to a Revenue Officer for an order affirming the partition.

(2) On receiving the application, the Revenue Officer shall inquire into the case, and if he finds that the partition has in fact been made, he may make an order affirming it and proceed under sections 131, 132, 133 and 134, or any of those sections, as circumstances may require, in the same manner as if the partition had been made on an application to himself under this Chapter.

136. Estimates and levy of costs.—(1) When the mode of partition is determined, the Revenue Officer shall cause the cost of making the partition to be estimated, and shall direct that the cost be levied in the first instance from the applicant for partition or from all the co-sharers in such instalments and at such times during the progress of the partition as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) If the amount first estimated is found insufficient supplementary estimates may be made from time to time, and the additional amount may be levied as above provided.

(3) The Financial Commissioner shall make rules for determining the costs of partitions under this Chapter and the mode in which such costs are to be apportioned.

137. Re-distribution of land according to customs.—When by established custom any land in an estate is subject to periodical re-distribution a Revenue Officer may, on the application of any of the land-owners, enforce the re-distribution according to the custom, and for this purpose may exercise all or any of the powers of a Revenue Officer in proceedings for partition.

138. Officers who may be empowered to act under this Chapter.—The Revenue Officer by whom proceedings may be taken under this Chapter shall be a Revenue Officer of a class not below that of Assistant Collector of the first grade.

CHAPTER X.—Arbitration

139. Power to refer to arbitration.—(1) Any Revenue Officer may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute arising before him in any matter under this Act.

(2) A Collector or any Assistant Collector of the first grade may, without the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute before him with respect to—

- (a) any matter of which an entry is to be made in any record or register under Chapter IV ;
- (b) any matter relating to the distribution of an assessment under section 60 ;
- (c) the limits of any estate or of any holding, field or other portion of an estate ;
- (d) the property to be divided at a partition or the mode of making a partition.

140. Order of reference and contents thereof.—(1) In referring a dispute to arbitration a Revenue Officer shall make an order of reference, and specify therein the precise matter submitted to arbitration, the number of arbitrators which each party to the dispute is to nominate, the period within which arbitrators are to be nominated, and the period within which the award is to be delivered.

(2) The number of arbitrators which each party may nominate must be the same and must not exceed two.

(3) If from any cause arbitrators are not nominated, or an award is not delivered within the period fixed therefor in the order of reference, the Revenue Officer may from time to time enlarge that period, or may cancel the order of reference.

141. Nomination of arbitrators.—(1) When an order of reference has been made, the parties may each nominate the number of arbitrators specified in the order.

(2) The Revenue Officer may, for reasons to be recorded by him, make an order allowing any nomination made by either party and requiring the party to make another nomination within a time to be specified in the order.

(3) An order under the last foregoing sub-section shall be final.

142. Substitution of arbitrators by parties.—If an arbitrator nominated by a party dies, desires to be discharged or refuses or becomes incapable to act, the party may nominate another person in his stead.

143. Nomination and substitution of arbitrators by Revenue Officers.—In any of the following cases, namely :—

- (a) if either of the parties fails to nominate an arbitrator under sub-section (1) of section 141 within the period fixed in the order of reference ; or
- (b) if the nomination of an arbitrator has been disallowed under sub-section (2) of section 141, and another arbitrator is not nominated within the time specified in the order under that sub-section or, having been so nominated, his nomination is also disallowed, or
- (c) if a party entitled to nominate an arbitrator in the place of another arbitrator under section 142 fails to nominate him within one week from the date of the communication to him of a notice requiring him to make the nomination, or
